

Going Remote?

Say Goodbye to Spreadsheets and Hello to Compaas.

Get expert advice

Compaas are the experts in remote employee compensation. We specialize in companies with complex compensation packages, including stock and bonus structures.

Flexible and friendly

No matter if your remote compensation strategy involves zones, granular compensation, or a gradual roll-out: Compaas makes your compensation strategy become reality.

Insightful, accurate, and secure

Emailing spreadsheets is time-consuming and insecure. Compaas is SOC-2 compliant, and your team can see the status of your employee compensation in real-time.

Your team will love Compaas

We help you keep your managers and leadership on-track and on-budget. Finance loves that Compaas provides fast, complete, accurate data – including location factors.

Compaas are the experts in managing compensation for remote and distributed companies.

Compensation is complex, and going remote makes it even more difficult to keep up. With our Compensation Intelligence Platform, you can analyze trends, manage your spending, and even help managers make better raise recommendations.
